No. B.1.1814/44 dated 7th October 1944.

Sir,

Sub:- Stores - purchase of a new oil engine in place of the old one for the Dry Farming Station Hagari - sanction requested.

The existing National oil engine at the Dry Farming Station Hagari has suddenly given way by an accident and has become irrepairable. A new oil engine is necessary to replace the irrepairable one, for irrigating dry crops on the farm. The animals on the station have to be fed mainly from the fodder produced in the gardenland as fodder is not available outside. The experimental plots of ragi which have been transplanted in the gardenlands have also to be irrigated.

2. Messrs. Greaves Cotton and Co., Madras the agent for Ruston oil Engines who were enquired state that they can supply an engine within a month's time. The total cost of the engine as quoted by them comes to Rs. 5,586/- (including spare parts and installation charges).

3. I request that sanction may be accorded for the purchase of a new Ruston oil Engine - 13.H.P. for pumping water to irrigate the gardenlands of the station at a cost of Rs. 5,586/- complete with spare parts. The cost will be met from "40-Agricultural - c. Agricultural Research schemes - C.2. contingencies.

4. As the Engine is urgently required, I request that early sanction may be accorded.

Your obedient servant,

for DIRECTOR OF AGRICULTURE.
